Hokusetsu Sake Facts

Hikari - Junmai Dai-Ginjo Centrifuged

This Junmai Dai-Ginjo centrifuged sake is brewed using the koshitanrei rice, which originates in Sado Island and is milled to 40% after being grown using organic compost and few agrochemicals or chemical fertilizers.

Within the brilliant fragrance of this sake there are hints of melon and white flowers.

When you turn the glass, the umami of the rice comes out. This sake has a good balance between umami and sourness.

Nobu YK35 Dai-Ginjo Enshibunri

Yamada nishiki rice is milled down to 35%, and fermented over a long period at low temperatures. We then extract the sake.

from the fermented Dai-Ginjo mash we have brewed using a centrifuge. This sake is instilled with the brilliance of Dai-Ginjo.

The fragrance of melons, white flowers and a powerful flavors brings an attack of gentle sweetness that later brings a pleasant bitterness.

Nobu YK35 Dai-Ginjo

Delicate aromas with silky smooth palate and sophisticated finish (If perfection had a name it would be YK35)

Awarded "Best Gold" in 2008 Sake awards, "The most prestige Japanese Sake Tasting".

Nobu TK40 Junmai Dai-Ginjo

Beautiful round sake with a delicate texture, hints of tropical fruits, and crisp after taste.

After 15 yrs of planning and testing, Koshitanrei was born from rice harvested by the Hokusetsu brewer himself.

Nobu Junmai Dai-Ginjo

Medium bodied, clean and complex with floral notes; perfectly balanced with a soft, dry finish.

This sake is made from Gohyakumangoku rice, polished 50% and fermented long term under low temperature.

Hokusetsu Dai-Ginjo

Delicate aromas of honey with slight earthy notes; soft in the palate with a lighter finish.

Made with Gohyakumangoku rice; a lighter taste than the Music Age sake and one of the most traditional brands.

Junmai-Ginjo '71"

*From the 71st tank of the season, sake made with Gohyakumangoku Rice, milled to 55%
Aromas of melons, asian pear & yellow apple are accentuated with a pleasantly sour aftertaste.*

Music Aged Onigoroshi

Mild taste with a dry finesse; rich and earthy mid-palate.

This sake is aged while "listening" to the classic collection of Kitaro, a famous Japanese musician.

Onigoroshi

The driest of sake from Matsubisa; banana and vanilla aromas and an extremely dry finish.

Nigori-Unfiltered

Elegant and tasty with a lot of fruit aromas, gentle acidity, and clean finish.
